

I wish to support leaving rules in place that serve the public interest, not private interests. I oppose more media consolidation. On June 2, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules.